

Literary Devices

Simile: comparing 2 things with using the words “like” or “as”

Metaphor: comparing 2 things without using the words “like” or “as”

Personification: assigning lifelike qualities to inanimate objects

Alliteration: using the same sound repeatedly

Onomatopoeia: a word that sounds like the word it represents (“boom” or “buzz” or “swish”)